A BILL

To seek negotiations to rename the Taipei Economic and Cultural Representative Office in the United States, to make the Director of the American Institute in Taiwan a position requiring Senate confirmation, to amend the Immigration and Nationality Act to provide nonimmigrant status for diplomats from Taiwan, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “Taiwan Diplomatic Re-
3 view Act”.

4 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

5 Congress finds the following:

6 (1) Pursuant to the Taiwan Relations Act (22
7 U.S.C. 3301(b)(1)), it is the policy of the United 8 States to “promote extensive, close, and friendly
9 commercial, cultural, and other relations between 10 the people of the United States and the people of 11 Taiwan”.

12 (2) In May 2019, the Taiwanese counterpart to 13 the American Institute in Taiwan (AIT), the Coordi-
14 nation Council for North American Affairs was re-
15 named Taiwan Council for U.S. Affairs.

16 (3) It is the policy of the United States to refer 17 to Taiwan as “Taiwan”, not “Taipei” or “Chinese 18 Taipei”.

19 (4) The Taipei Economic and Cultural Rep-
20 resentative Office (TECRO) is inaptly named as it
21 works to cultivate the extensive, close, and friendly
22 commercial, cultural, and other relations between
23 the people of the United States and the people, orga-
24 nizations, and enterprises of Taiwan, not merely 25 those in Taipei.

1                         (5) The Director of the AIT serves as the prin-
2 cipal representative of the United States in Taiwan
3 and is responsible for preserving and promoting ex-
4 tensive, close, and friendly commercial, cultural, and 5 other relations between the people of the United 6 States and the people on Taiwan on behalf of the 7 United States Government.

8                         (6) As Taiwan is a critical partner of the 9 United States in the Indo-Pacific, robust oversight
10 over United States policy towards the island is nec-
11 essary.

12                         (7) Requiring the advice and consent of the 13 Senate with regards to the Director of the AIT sig-
14 nals the importance of the U.S.-Taiwan relationship.

15                         (8) Several officers with relatively limited policy
16 roles when compared to the Director of the Amer-
17 ican Institute in Taiwan are subject to the advice
18 and consent of the Senate including the officials at 19 the John F. Kennedy Center For The Performing 20 Arts and the Barry Goldwater Scholarship And Ex-
21 cellence In Education Foundation.

22                         (9) Officers at non-profit corporations may be 23 subject to the advice and consent of the Senate, in-24 cluding the United States Institutes of Peace, which 25 is “an independent nonprofit corporation and an or-

1       ganization described in section 170(c)(2)(B) of the 2       Internal Revenue Code of 1986".

3                 (10) Congress has the power to create positions
4       that are "officers of the United States" pursuant to 5       the Appointments Clause that are not employees of 6       the United States Government.

7                 (11) As the United States does not have diplo-
8       matic relations with Taiwan, Taiwanese officials and 9       diplomats do not receive diplomatic visas; instead,
10      they are provided investor visas, which do not accu-
11      rately represent their purpose in the United States
12      as official representatives of Taiwan.

13 SEC. 3. NEGOTIATIONS; REPORT.

14         (a) NEGOTIATIONS.—Reflective of the substantively
15  deepening ties between Taiwan and the United States, the 16  Secretary of State shall seek to enter into negotiations
